Additional Information on Booth Payments

Full payment will include the submission of a $500 damage deposit which will be returned by February 2023 given that the vendor does not incur any damage upon their booth or the surrounding area.

All booth fees and related payments must be made in U.S. dollars. The GACC-CO highly recommends that payment be submitted by check. All checks should be made payable to the “German American Chamber of Commerce” with the name of your business and “booth fee” in the memo.

Vendors may also pay electronically through PayPal, but will take on the additional transaction fee. The transaction fee will be calculated on a case by case basis depending on the number of booths rented.

Additional Denver Christkindlmarket Policies

The GACC-CO reserves the right to reject a vendor’s application for any reason, without limitation. Upon the GACC-CO’s acceptance of a vendor’s application, the GACC-CO will provide the applicant with a Vendor Contract. The applicant will have no right to participate in any manner in the Denver Christkindlmarket, unless they have executed a Vendor Contract with the GACC-CO and paid the full booth fee to the GACC-CO.

Listing products in the vendor application does not guarantee the applicant the right to sell those products. The GACC-CO makes an effort to limit the number of vendors providing the same types of products at the Denver Christkindlmarket. Therefore, the GACC-CO reserves the right to limit the types of products a vendor is allowed to sell at the Market. Providing an accurate list of available products will help in this regard.
